JUST A DAY?

Current Sermon Series

October 4: We live in a world that is difficult, depraved and deceived. What it needs are indispensable instruments for good who can dispel evil and darkness. Living like a servant causes us to stand apart and to be different. To be God's servants, we must shine a light into dark places, season our environments with His grace and positively influence the world in which we live.

An Update on Chris Cleveland and Stars Go Dim

As many of you know I released a new song, "You Are Loved," to radio over the summer.

This is a message I believe our world and culture are desperate to hear. In a time when we are being bombarded with so many voices telling us who to be, how to act, how to dress, how to speak, and worst of all that we aren't good enough; I believe this is a message that can cut through that noise.

As the modern worship leader, I believe that the same God who said, "before I formed you in the womb I knew you," and "You are fearfully and wonderfully made..." is calling upon us, the believers, the church, to show through our words and our actions that He cares for us, He has a plan for us, and most importantly no matter who you are or what you've done, God loves you.

Thank you for allowing me to lead modern worship at Asbury each week but also take this message of Christ's love to the world.

Our song is currently at #12 on the Billboard CHR charts and climbing. You can listen to it regularly on Air1, but it is also being played nationwide on many stations.

It's so encouraging to hear and see the impact that Asbury is having nationally through this opportunity.

We will follow up our single release with our full album release the end of October. I'm so excited to share this new music with you.

Shortly after that release, I will be joining some of the biggest names in Christian music for the Winterjam West tour in November.

It is an incredibly exciting time right now for both this music and the life of our church. Thank you for allowing me to serve Asbury and reach out globally through the gifting God has given me.

—Chris Cleveland
