

We're Thankful For You.

This week, millions of Americans will pause to remember how blessed they are.

But let us be the first to say how thankful we are for YOU. We're truly honored you chose to worship with us today, and we invite you to come back and join us each and every week. Whether it's through our modern or traditional worship services, children's or student ministries, local or global outreach, senior adult ministries, women's groups, men's groups, or volunteering at one of the many other opportunities here at Asbury, there's sure to be a place just for you.
