We're Glad Bedside United Methodist Lost Out Today.

We know you could've slept in today. Or gone to the lake. Or gone out for brunch. And you can still eat and go to the lake afterwards (sorry, the sleeping-in option is long gone). But the important thing is YOU'RE HERE! And we're glad. But more importantly, so is God. You see, He knew you were coming ... and He has a reason for it. So open your heart and listen for His Word today. You'll be glad you came to Asbury.

Volunteer Recruitment Sunday, May 21

You could assist with Communion...

Everyone plays a role in helping others follow Jesus, and we need you to share your gifts by serving on Sunday mornings! Whether it is singing in the choir, leading a kid's small group, holding babies or opening doors, your presence on a volunteer team will impact lives. There will be tables in the main foyer on Sunday, May 21 so you can find a Sunday morning volunteer position for you.

Generous Serving

By Marsha Baker

Russ, Debbie, Sarah, Katie and John Knight

When it comes to generous giving, the Knights, one of our AsburyKids volunteer families, really shine. Almost every Sunday, you will find them serving in multiple children's rooms in the downstairs AsburyKids area. If a sub is needed, they are the first to volunteer to work an extra shift—all five of them! Many Sundays, their family is the reason we are able to open all the rooms and serve more children.

The Knight family has touched many children's lives, and they hope their story encourages others to take the next step and get plugged into volunteering and give generously of their time.

The Knights see big purpose in their volunteer roles each Sunday. It was important to Russ and Debbie when their children were young to know their children were safe and learning about Jesus while they went to worship, connected with other believers and had community time on Sunday mornings. Now their family desires to provide the same sense of peace of mind for young AsburyKids families by loving and nurturing the children.

"We want to help lay the groundwork for the foundations of faith for Asbury kids. The children may not retain everything we share with them, but seeds of truth are being sown. We want them to feel loved, accepted, safe and have fun so that they will associate all those feelings with the love of Christ," says Debbie.

After 14 years of generously giving, the Knights have learned, "AsburyKids is not Sunday morning child care; it is an investment in our future as a church. Our prayer is that these children will not follow the statistical norm of leaving the faith when they grow up and are on their own. This is where those foundations are being laid." The number of little lives they have impacted and continue to impact is a result of the time they have dedicated as volunteers to these young children.

Together as a family each Sunday morning, the Knights are changing lives. "It is our privilege to spend Sunday mornings with AsburyKids. Our family has been richly blessed by our time there, and we are truly grateful," concludes Debbie.
